

Liberalization of Services Sector in ASEAN, Indonesia's Skilled Workers and National Resilience

ASEAN Study Center UI

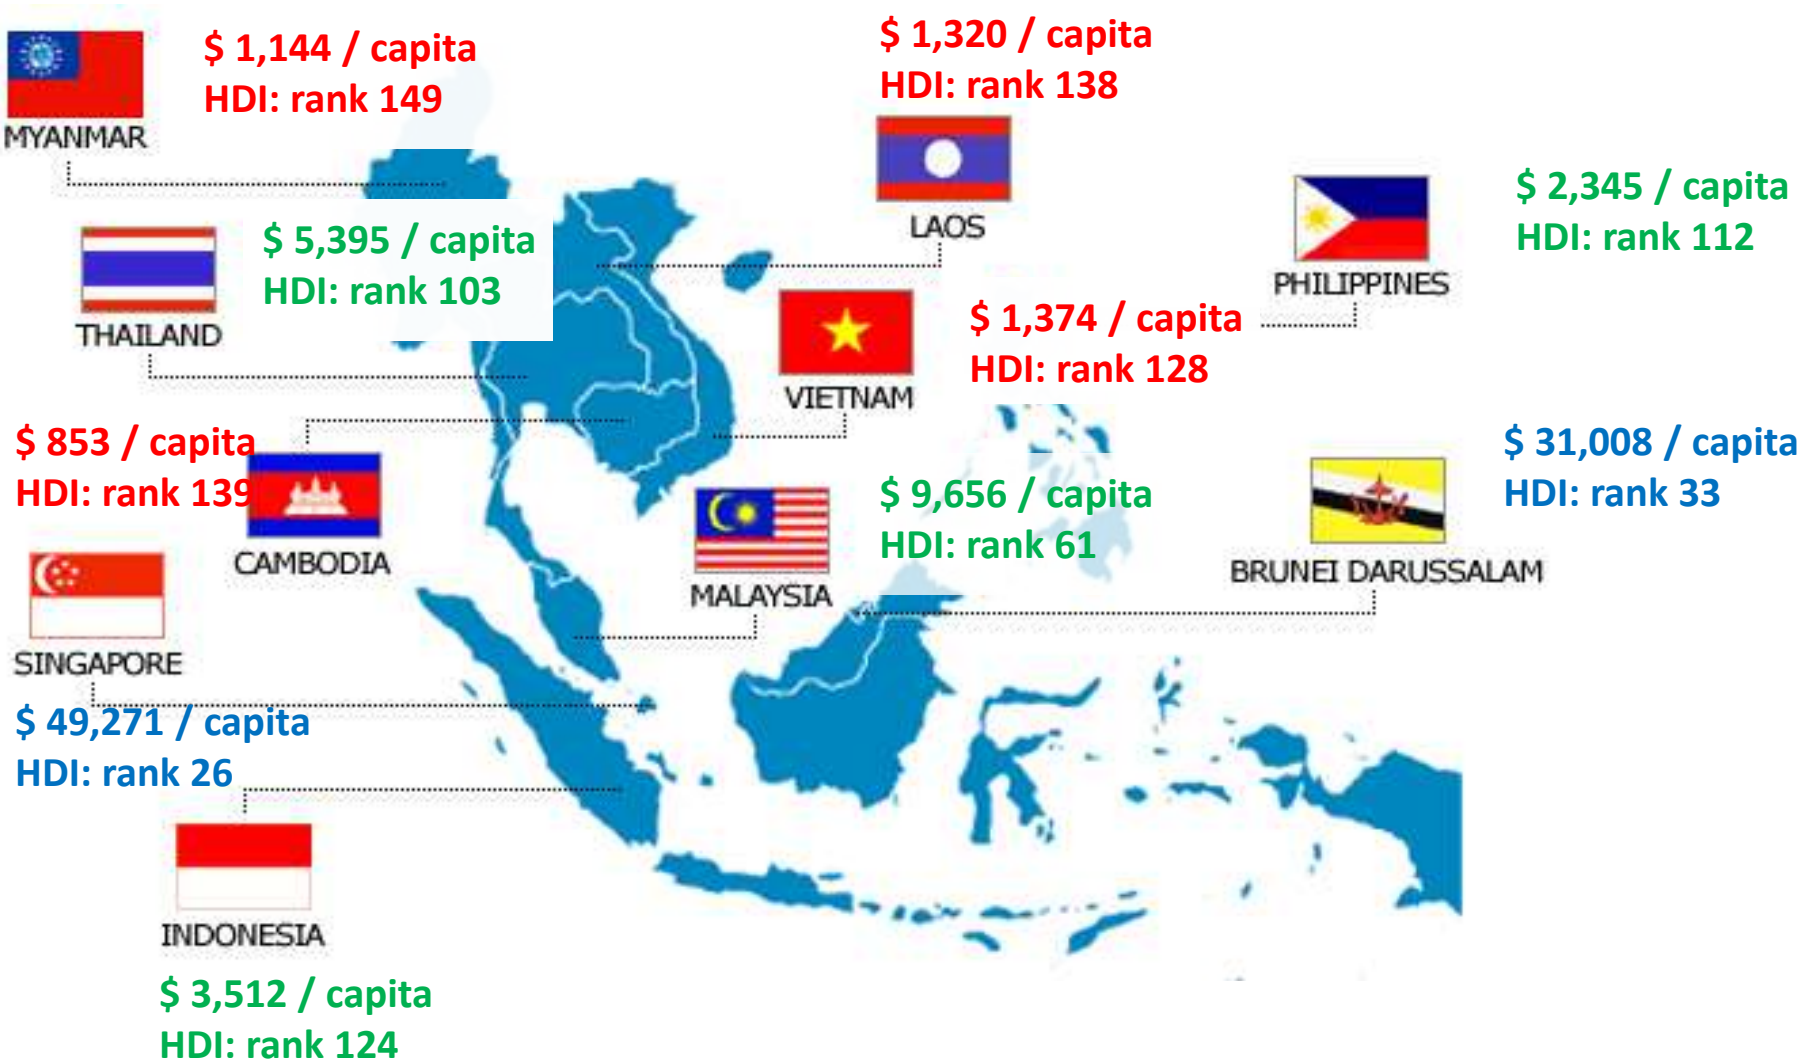

Objectives

- Mapping Indonesia's services sector based on the impacts on national resilience.
 - Economic
 - Social
 - Political
- Mapping the competitiveness of Indonesia's skilled workers in each particular sector.
- Identifying challenges for Indonesia at regional and domestic levels.
 - Governance
 - Social welfare
 - Human capital

Background

- ASEAN Economic Community
- ASEAN Agreement Framework on Services (AFAS) – 1995
- MRA (Mutual Recognition Arrangement) - 19 November 2007
- 2010: services sector already 50% to Indonesia's GDP

Facts

Facts

Where Will the World's Poor Live?

Somalia, Ethiopia, some African countries?

No. The largest chunk of world's poor :

50%: India and China (yes, that India and China!)

25%: Pakistan, Nigeria, Indonesia (Middle Income Countries with large populations)

25%: Low income countries

Outcomes

